

NHMA promotes reduction in the risks from foreseeable natural events through planning, climate adaptation, and mitigation, with a special emphasis on protecting the most vulnerable populations.

SPONSORSHIP FORM

Symposium Sponsorships

NHMA is seeking sponsors for two events at the Natural Hazards Center Annual Workshop at the Omni Interlocken Resort in Broomfield Colorado, Sunday, July 9 - Wednesday, July 12 (<https://hazards.colorado.edu/workshop/2017>).

Who does NHMA serve?

NHMA serves federal, state, and local agencies, non-profit organizations, and private sector companies who are either involved in or have an interest in the mitigation of hazards. The types of professionals span a wide array of professions including urban and regional planners, emergency managers, floodplain managers, public works officials, engineers, geologists, fire fighters, police, as well as business owners and individual citizens interested in issues of hazard mitigation.

Why Sponsor NHMA?

NHMA is an organization operating on a national scale representing agencies, organizations and companies with practicing professionals; NHMA's opinion and advice has been increasingly sought by policy makers at all levels of government.

- Our membership consists of practitioners who seek the services or assistance your organization may provide;
- Each year since our inception in 2008 our Symposiums have experienced a significant increase in attendees; and
- NHMA is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization whose Board Officers and members of its Advisory Committees serve pro bono advancing the field of hazard mitigation.
