

2018 CERC Webinar Schedule*

Date	Topic
MARCH 29	810 Mitigation: Using Federal Public Assistance dollars to rebuild after disasters. The Region II Division Director discusses how these funds helped and are helping communities to rebuild in the aftermath of Hurricanes Irma, Maria, and Sandy
APRIL 30	Making LiDAR Work for YOU: This webinar will walk you through the possibilities of high-resolution data and reshape your expectations of LiDAR collection.
MAY 22	Introducing the Revised CERC Playbook, a tool for engaging communities throughout the Risk MAP lifecycle.
JUNE	Engaging Elected Officials: Understanding the perspective of elected officials, effective techniques for productive engagement, and creating advocates
JULY	NO CERC WEBINAR
AUGUST	Economics of Resilience: Credit rating agencies are increasingly factoring hazard risk and resilience actions into community creditworthiness. This webinar will explore the economic value of resilience and taking mitigation action.
SEPTEMBER	Nature-Based Solutions: Exploration of nature-based mitigation solutions, including post-disaster solutions and their impact.
OCTOBER	Negotiation: Principles of effective negotiation with practical tips for Risk MAP scenarios.
NOVEMBER / DECEMBER	Partnerships: Working with communities. Plus, an update on the Resilient Nation Partnership Network.

*Schedule is subject to change