

Resilient Nation Partnership Network, Federal Emergency Management Agency and National Aeronautics and Space Administration Host Alliances for Climate Action Forum

By: Bradley Dean, bradley.dean@fema.dhs.gov

The Resilient Nation Partnership Network \(RNPN\), the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) will co-host the 6th Annual Partnership Forum this October. To reserve your spot at this year's event, please click here.

The virtual series will occur every Wednesday from 12 to 2 p.m. ET and will explore building "Alliances for Climate Action." Attendees will have an opportunity to dive into various perspectives around this topic; engage with other industry peers; and identify future opportunities for collaboration.

The series will cover the following topics each week:

- October 6 – Our Future Vision
- October 13 – When Climate Moves Communities
- October 20 – Stories That Inspire
- October 27 – Financing Climate Action

Featured speakers include:

- Deanne Criswell – FEMA Administrator (invited)
- Sen. Bill Nelson – NASA Administrator
- Governor Charles D. Baker – 72nd Governor of Massachusetts
- Ko Barret – Vice-Chair Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change and Deputy Assistant Administrator for Research, NOAA
